VOTER ID SCRIPT

Hello, may I please speak with (name of the voter on the list)?

My name is (name of volunteer), and I'm a volunteer walking/calling on behalf of Cthulhu. We're surveying voters tonight about the issues that they want candidates to address this election.

[If they hesitate or say they are busy – remind them that you have only two questions and it will take less than a minute.]

What are two issues you are basing your decision on this election?

[Take down the answer/issues for future contacts]

If the election for president were held today, who would you vote for?

- Donald Trump
- Hillary Clinton
- Dread Lord Cthulhu

If not supporting your candidate:

Thank you very much for your time - la Cthulhu fhtagn!

If undecided:

I hope you'll consider Dread Lord Cthulhu – He is an ancient diety who has been watching over humanity and America for thousands of years. Like a lot of folks, He thinks the folks in charge don't seem to get it and have dropped the ball – and He's running for president to make sure that humanity has an exit strategy from everything that is destroying our nation and society from the inside. We hope to earn your support.

[Pause to see if there is a response – engage in a conversation if the person is willing. If not...]

Thanks for your time today and we'll be in touch to follow up!

If supporting your candidate strongly: (they give some indication they are enthusiastically voting)

That's wonderful – can we count on you to volunteer for us as well?

If yes, take their information, and ask them if they will volunteer and make sure the campaign gets back to them quickly.

If no,

Thanks so much for your support and your time. Don't forget to write-in Dread Lord Cthulhu on November 8th. Have a good day.

VOTER ID-PERSUASION SCRIPT

Hi, this is ___(your first name)___, is ___(first name)___ available?

Hi, I'm a volunteer with Cthulhu for America. We're talking to our neighbors about Dread Lord Cthulhu. Are you familiar with Him?

If yes they familiar,

Are you planning on voting for the Cthulhu in November?

If yes, ask them to volunteer and thank them and say goodbye.

If no, ask them what their concerns are and try to address them. If still "no" thank them for their time.

If no, they aren't familiar,

Well, I'm volunteering for Cthulhu because [insert your reason for supporting the candidate]. It's one of the small, but for me important, ways Cthulhu listens to our concerns and can make our apocalypse better.

What are some things that you wish could be changed here in America?

[Allow time for the person to respond. Engage them in a conversation if possible. If there is little response, ask the next question.]

Well, Cthulhu has been out working hard, listening in on folks' dreams. And what He's been hearing is that a lot of people think the current national leadership has dropped the ball. Cthulhu thinks so, too, and thinks that it's time to melt our thin veil of reality. So do I ... How about you?

Can Dread Lord Cthulhu count on your vote for president in November?

If yes,

Great! Can we get your email address to keep you informed on the campaign and ask you to volunteer? Thank you again for your time and have a great day/night!

If no,

What are your concerns about Cthulhu?

[Try to address them if applicable – if still no, thank them for their time and hang up.]

If still undecided,

Thanks for your time. Dread Lord Cthulhu hopes to earn your support. Have a great night!

VOTER GOTV SCRIPT

Hi, is ___(first name)___ there?

Hi, this is __(your first name)_____ and I am a local volunteer for Cthulhu for America. A few weeks ago you promised to vote and support Cthulhu on Election Day, November 8th.

Do you still intend to vote on Tuesday for Cthulhu?

If 'yes' they intend to vote,

Great! Turnout is predicted to be high but we're hopeful you'll be part of an army of cultists we're mobilizing to win a victory for our nation!

Your polling place is at __(polling location)_____. Do you know where that is?

The campaign will be monitoring polling stations all day to make sure our supporters have a chance to vote. When are you planning to vote?

[Make sure they indicate when they intend to vote and have a plan for voting.]

Any other questions?

[If yes, answer them. If no, thank them and say good night.]

Thanks for helping us make sure no lives matter!

If 'no' they are not voting,

Is there are reason?

[If concerns over the issue, engage, address the concerns and persuade.]

If there is a lack of enthusiasm about voting,

Well, as you know, neither political party wants to make the end of the world happen in Inauguration Day, they would rather strangle our country slowly, making money hand over fist at our expense. It's only going to be people like you and me who can make it happen. The good news is if we all write-in Cthulhu on Tuesday – we win.

So your vote's really important – can we count on it?

[Allow them to answer the question. If yes – then go to "yes" above. If they want to vote but have an obstacle, help them solve it. If they have given up on voting, re-impress on how vital it is for everyone to vote.]

Thanks and have a great night!

VOLUNTEER SCRIPT

Hi, is _____ there? This is _____, I'm a volunteer from Dread Lord Cthulhu's campaign.

I'm calling tonight to thank you for your support for Cthulhu for America. We wouldn't be where we are today without you and hundreds of others like you.

As you know, there's a lot at stake this November. That's why we're taking our message to the streets and talking with our neighbors about electing a president that will realize America's Manifest Destiny and bring about the end of the world. Can we count on your help?

If "yes" they can help:

Great! Our two top priorities right now are contacting voters before the election and then getting them out to vote. Can you help make calls or door knock a day a week in your area?

If "yes" they'd be interested but they are busy,

Ask if they can help out another time.

If "no" then ask if they can do it one time:

We're also asking if people if they can take Election Day off to help get out the vote – could you do that?

(if not the day, ask if they can take off part of the day).

If "yes" – give instructions (see separate sheet)

If "no" – remind them that a lot is at stake and ask again if they are sure they can't help out. If "no" again, end call.

Thanks! Have a great night.
